The play deals with a group of children and their "fuddy-duddy" teacher who visit a Christmas ornament factory. When the ornaments come to life, they teach the meaning of Christmas to the children and especially to the teacher. The play features many lively songs by the children as well as traditional carols by the adult choir.

An offering will be taken for the Lottie Moon Christmas Fund for foreign missions. Refreshments will be served in the basement after the program.

The public is corially invited to attend this local Christmas event.

Christmas mass set

Each Sunday the mass at Our Lady of Peace Catholic Church is at 11:30 a.m., but the mass on Dec. 25 celebrating the birth of our Savior will be at 10 a.m. followed by a short period of socializing.

Christmas Day is a special feast day in all catholic churches throughout the world. All are welcome to join in this celebration.

In a broad sense each who claims to be Christian must ask themselves "Does it make a difference in my life that Jesus came into the world? Bottom line...God became flesh to save us...Do we respond in our daily lives?"

The mass on New Years Day, Jan. 1, will also be held at 10 a.m.

Hopkins completes training

Pvt. William H. Hopkins, son of Delories T. Hopkins of Appomattox, Va., has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire crewman.

Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad.

He is a 1984 graduate of Appomattox County High School.
